

“A TRAVEL TO BALKANS” | Media Kit

20 OCTOBER–20 NOVEMBER

What is Seyahatya?

We're a blog that helps preparing travel tips in Turkish language.

We feature destination guides, pre-departure guidance, tips on how to have a great travels to abroad. In this purpose we do cooperation with tour agencies, tourism companies, hotels, etc...

Created in January 2014, Seyahatya.com has reached a significant point to be a guide for Turkish travelers in a short time.

Each post is written by authors who have traveled abroad. They know the ups and downs of traveling abroad and their insights to cities around the world give our readers useful and unique information.

About the Founder and Editor-in-Chief, Omer Dogan

Omer, is an architect from Turkey. After graduating, he moved to Seoul, Korea where he has been studying master degree. During his time in Seoul he met and traveled with dozens of foreigner adventurous. These travels inspired him to create Seyahatya.com

Featured Travel Notes on Seyahatya.com

Tayland gezi notları (Thailand travel notes), Bangkok'ta gezilecek yerler (places to see in Bangkok), Seul gezi rehberi (Seoul travel guide)...

Special points of interest:

- ◆ Traditional and historic cities.
- ◆ Architecture and urbanism.
- ◆ Traditional bazaars and retail methods.
- ◆ Local Arts. Festivals.
- ◆ Affordable travel.

One Month in Balkan Cities

I am going to start my travel from Sarajevo, where I will head from Istanbul. And I will finish my travel again in Sarajevo.

Schedule

Sarajevo	OCT. 21
Mostar–Blagaj	OCT. 22
Kotor–Su Stefan– Budva	OCT. 31
Cetinje–Podgorica–Noribar	NOV. 03
Shkoder	NOV. 05
Prizren	NOV. 07
Berat–Elbasan	NOV. 09
Dyrrres–Tirana–Kruje	NOV. 10
Ohrid	NOV. 12
Skopje	NOV. 13
Belgrade	NOV. 15
Sarajevo	NOV. 17